 ICoMI

WELCOME

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to the 2nd International Congress of Micro-immunotherapy (ICoMI) that will take place online on June 2-4, 2022.

ICoMI is an international platform for exchange between health professionals and researchers on Immunomodulation. This 2022 meeting will cover the core fields of Immunology & Metabolism, two challenging areas that are already shaping the roadmap towards precision medicine.

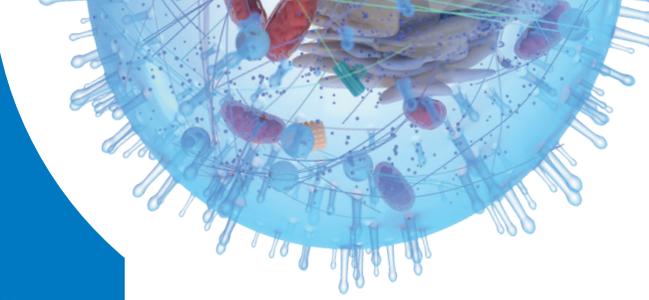

It is today widely known that each stage of the immune response, from antigen presentation to cell differentiation and activation, is intimately linked with cell metabolism.

- Immune cells are capable of sensing every day changes in our microenvironment, from dietary metabolites to the presence of pathogens or abnormal cells, and trigger or adapt their metabolic signalling programs to their needs.
- Specific immune responses and inflammation can influence metabolic systemic signalling and contribute to the development of different diseases. A clear example of it may be the link between chronic low-grade inflammation and insulin resistance paving the way to type 2 diabetes.

Every immune response thus depends on and, at the same time, shapes cellular energy management. This crosstalk between immunity and metabolism opens today new perspectives in medicine, and leads to the emerging concept of metabolic reprogramming of immune cells in diseases where chronic inflammation and/or metabolic dysfunctions are key mediators, such as diabetes, autoimmunity or cancer. Therefore, therapeutic approaches like micro-immunotherapy, nutrition and/or microbiome-based therapies may play an important role in the management of these diseases, as part of a global treatment plan.

Looking forward to being connected all together!
Warmest regards,

Dr. Pascal Mensah
Scientific Director of ICoMI

3 days, 43 sessions, 120 abstracts.

It also attracted international and local media interest.

ABOUT ICoMI 2017

As the immune system is always involved in chronic disorders, it constitutes a big challenge to draw new therapeutic strategies.

During this congress we understood how fundamental is the collaboration between researchers and doctors.

WHY ONLINE?

In times of social distancing, virtual events have come to represent an enduring solution. Far from being a limitation, they allow us to gather in great number by crossing the borders of distance and capacity with less environmental impact. They therefore have the potential not only to maintain, but also to expand the essence of the ICoMI, an essence outlined by one goal and expectation: establishing an international exchange between communities of health professionals and researchers in a flexible, accessible, and easy way.

Holding the Congress virtually is a way of opening doors to everyone. The more we are, the richer the experience, the more varied the cultural environment, the broader the knowledge to be shared.

NETWORKING AREA

The sponsor's logo will appear on the screens of the networking area, where the different chats are located.

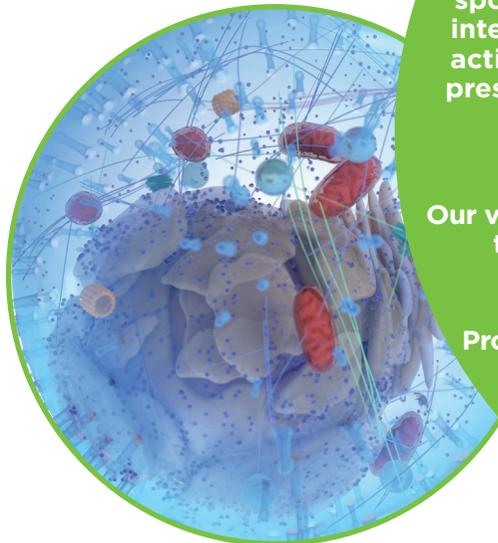

SPONSORED SESSIONS

At virtual events in particular, it is important for sponsored sessions to be perceived by participants as interesting and of significant value. Only then will they actively participate. Sponsored sessions should ideally present one or several renowned experts with an active role, either as presenters during the session, and / or during the Q&A.

Our virtual congress platform is well adapted to ensure value to sponsors through extensive exposure and active engagement with congress participants.

Providing enough sponsor exposure without perceiving it as intrusive by participants is a key point for any virtual event that intends to provide the sponsoring companies with a proper return of their investment.

VIRTUAL BOOTH

All sponsors are presented with their logo and name sorted by sponsor level.

The individual sponsor page includes:

- Sponsor banner, name, link to company URL.
- Active networking with delegates visiting the booth. Staff available through chat, call or video call.
- The possibility for the sponsor to add a pre-defined number of linked documents (PDFs, audio or video files, webcast, link to product URL) corresponding to the sponsor level etc.
- Complete statistics in compliance with the GDPR regulation. The sponsor will receive complete statistics: number of delegates – profile attending / visiting the booth.

LARGE BOOTH

DATA COLLECTION

- Complete statistics and details in compliance with the GDPR regulations. The sponsor will receive complete statistics: number of delegates – profile attending / watching the workshop.
- The sponsor will receive professional contact details of all registered delegates who have accepted sharing their contact details in the booths, in accordance with the GDPR regulation.
- Our goal is to follow the same process as in physical congresses when barcodes at the exhibition area are scanned. The delegate's pre-acceptance to receiving information about the products/services, will act as a barcode equivalent.

MY BAG

Just like in physical congresses, all participants will be provided with a virtual congress bag (MyBag).

The bag is to be handed during check-in. Inside, participants may keep the brochures, catalogs or corporate videos distributed at the different booths, as well as their attendance certificate or any other document provided by the congress organizers and sponsoring companies.

BANNERS

Banners offer the opportunity to include your logo among the elements of internal signage of the entrance hall of the congress, from where users access other areas (conference rooms, commercial exhibition area,...).

These images have great visibility whenever a participant visits a room.
